

Sinclair uses the public airwaves free of charge, and I am extremely concerned that any media conglomerate can force their political ideology on their franchised stations as well as the tax payers in this country. Democracy is at risk. The FCC must react in a non-partisan way and strengthen media ownership rules. Allowing any ideology to muscle stations into a political stance is dangerous. Thank you.